DRESS FOR SUCCESS: Winston-Salem Chapter

Thank you to all who have contributed to DFS. To date we have delivered four trunk loads. This will be a continuing project and we would appreciate your thinking of us as you clean your closets. If you have questions, see Christine Phelps or Linn Parsons.

Crisis at Crisis Control

We have become aware of a Crisis of empty shelves at Crisis Control Ministry. It is an astounding picture- vacant areas without the usual stores they have for those in need. They have requested aid in replenishing the supplies of commonly requested items:

- Jars of applesauce
- Canned salmon, tuna, chicken (protein sources)
- Corn muffin mix
- 100% fruit juice (not with high fructose corn syrup or other sweeteners)
- canned carrots, collard greens,
- canned potatoes or packages of easy to prepare potatoes

When you go to the store this week, if you could pick up a few items and place them in the narthex on Sunday, we will get them to Crisis Control.

Thanks for your help, Your Community Concerns Committee
